

Worksheet for the class scenario

From a graphic artist to a sculptor.

Task 1

Solve the quiz about the childhood and youth of Alfons Karny. There is only one correct answer in each point.

- 1. Alfons Karny was born in Białystok. Here is where he spent his childhood and youth. To make a living for himself, his mother and sister, he worked as a:
 - a) firefighter
 - b) police officer
 - c) chimney sweep
- 2. The city where Alfons Karny studied and later established his sculpting atelier is:
 - a) Białystok
 - b) Cracow
 - c) Warsaw
- 3. What was the name of the magazine for young readers for which Alfons Karny worked?
 - a) Świat Młodych
 - b) Iskry
 - c) Promyki
- 4. A sculptor, an outstanding pedagogue, a professor of the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw, a "father" to many 20th-century sculptors. Alfons Karny would improve his sculpting skills at his atelier. Who was he?
 - a) Władysław Skoczylas
 - b) Stanisław Noakowski
 - c) Tadeusz Breyer
- 5. Which sentence about Alfons Karny is true?
 - a) When he was making his sculptures, nobody was interested in such kind of art. They only appreciated him after he had died.
 - b) The artist was a winner of many awards and competitions, and his sculptures were shown at exhibitions, both in Poland and abroad.
 - c) The artist would only make portraits of completely unknown people.

Task 2

The pictures below show a graphic by Alfons Karny – an actress's portrait, as well as the tools needed to make a graphic. Caption all items.

Task 3

Alfons Karny worked for a magazine for young readers. You can become an editor and graphic designer, too! Design your own magazine. Remember to mention the title, the information on publication frequency, the price and the editorial staff.

Title:

.....

Price:

.....

In this issue:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Editor-in-chief:

.....